REGISTERED SOCIAL WORKER

Guelph Women's Health Associates (GWAH) and Eramosa Physiotherapy Associates (EPA) are well-established and busy physiotherapy practices established in 2018 and 1997 respectively. GWAH provides physiotherapy services focussing on pelvic physiotherapy drawing from pre and postpartum women, pre and post-menopausal women, pelvic pain, breast cancer-diagnosed clients and some clients in all groups and ages presenting with a history of trauma, high stress or anxiety levels. EPA also offers pelvic physiotherapy programming, and in addition offer orthopaedic physiotherapy with an emphasis on shoulder, back and knee pain. Approximately 30% of our orthopaedic clientele present with additional chronic pain, anxiety and other barriers preventing them from returning to their pre-injury level.

EPA and GWAH are known to be leaders in physiotherapy practice. We look for evidence-based programming and team members who want to build our client's skill sets so that they can move to independently manage their unique goals. We have been leaders in bringing unique programs to our communities such as being the first clinic to offer both pelvic physiotherapy (since 1997) and concussion management (since 2010) to the City of Guelph and surrounding areas. We are known in our medical communities for our research and educational marketing platforms and are often found teaching lunch and learns to family doctors, specialists, midwives and other allied health.

We are seeking a counselling therapist who is passionate about working with people to achieve their counselling/therapy goals in a private practice setting. We are currently hiring for both IN-PERSON services for our GWAH in Guelph ON, with VIRTUAL options to serve our clients coming from our 8 physical locations (Acton, Burlington, Cambridge, Elora, Georgetown, Guelph (2 sites) and Orangeville.

This position offers the freedom and flexibility of self-employment without the burden of running your own business, or the worry about where your next client will come from. We will readily promote programs and services at our locations through our robust social media platforms and direct client communication, where on average we communicate with over 17,500 clients monthly. In addition, we have regular medical touch points, where we can include and distribute relevant programming to over 200 medical referral sources.
